

TABLE 3. SOME PROTRACTED BENZODIAZEPINE WITHDRAWAL SYMPTOMS

Symptoms	Usual Course
Anxiety	- Gradually diminishing over a year
Depression	- May last a few months; responds to antidepressant drugs
Insomnia	- Gradually diminishing over 6-12 months
Sensory symptoms: tinnitus, tingling, numbness, deep or burning pain in limbs, feeling of inner trembling or vibration, strange skin sensations	- Gradually receding but may last at least a year and occasionally several years
Motor symptoms: muscle pain, weakness, painful cramps, tremor, jerks, spasms, shaking attacks	- Gradually receding but may last at least a year and occasionally several years
Poor memory and cognition	- Gradually receding but may last at least a year and occasionally several years
Gastrointestinal symptoms	- Gradually improving but may last a year and occasionally several years